I'M A TRAVELIN' MAN!

 Every year, groups of dedicated comic book fans gather together at special conventions across the country to celebrate the joy of reading and collecting comic books. Since this year is the 25th Anniversary of Marvel Comics, Stan "the Man" Lee (he's the guy who started it all), Jim "Trouble" Shooter (the editor in chief of Marvel Comics), "Amiable" Archie Goodwin (he runs Epic Comics), Sid "The Kid" Jacobson (you haven't been reading this column regularly if you don't know who he is by now) and I decided to celebrate this momentous occasion at a few of the very biggest comic conventions.

In the past few weeks, I've been to Chicago (loved the pizza!), Atlanta (loved the people!), and San Diego (loved the beach!). Marvel Comics held a special anniversary/birthday party at each of these conventions. There was plenty of food, music and dancing till dawn! Of course, the highlight of each party was when our official party hostess, "Lovable" Lynn Cohen (who usually runs the editorial administration center whenever she's not busy convention-hopping), wheeled in the giant birthday cake. Talk about a sight to remember! Large enough to feed thousands, it would always have twenty-five blazing candles and a big icing image of a certain familiar web-slinger! (Nope, it wasn't Peter Porker. His turn will come in twenty-three and a half years when Star celebrates its anniversary.)

A fine time was had by all! I wish you could have been there!

C'MON DOWN!

 Have you ever been to a comic book convention? They're actually a lot of fun. There's one being held on almost every weekend of the year in some part of the country. You can usually find out about local conventions by asking at your favorite neighborhood comic book shop. Conventions also advertise in Marvel and Star Comics, and on television.

I always recommend that you travel with a group of your friends. You'll have a lot more fun if you have someone to share it with.

Conventions are a great place to find old comics that you're missing from your collections. Old comics can sometimes be pretty expensive, but you can find bargains if you hunt hard enough.

You'll also get a chance to see tons of original artwork, to learn what's coming up in your favorite comic books, and to meet your favorite comic book professionals face to face.

That's the best part as far as I'm concerned. You and I finally get a chance to meet each other, to shake hands, and to ask each other questions. It's great! You can make some very special friends at a comic book convention.

If you ever do go to a convention that I'm attending, please stop by and say hello. I'd really like to meet you.

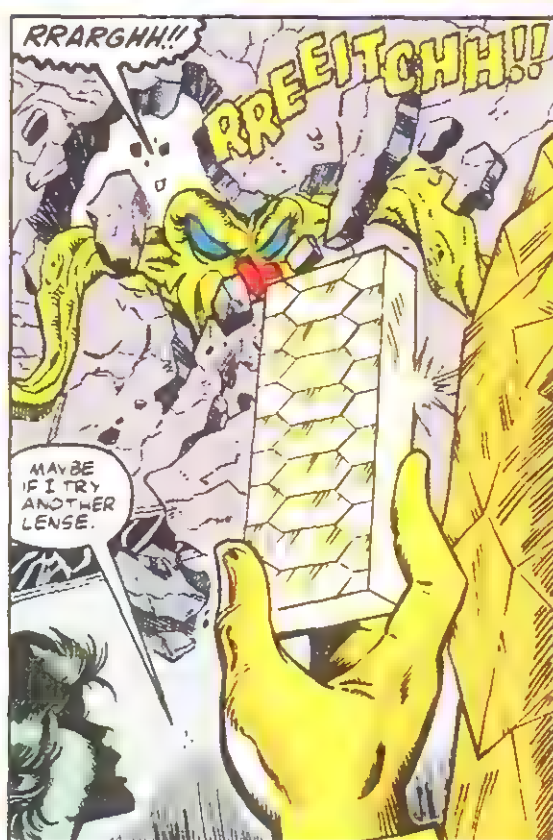

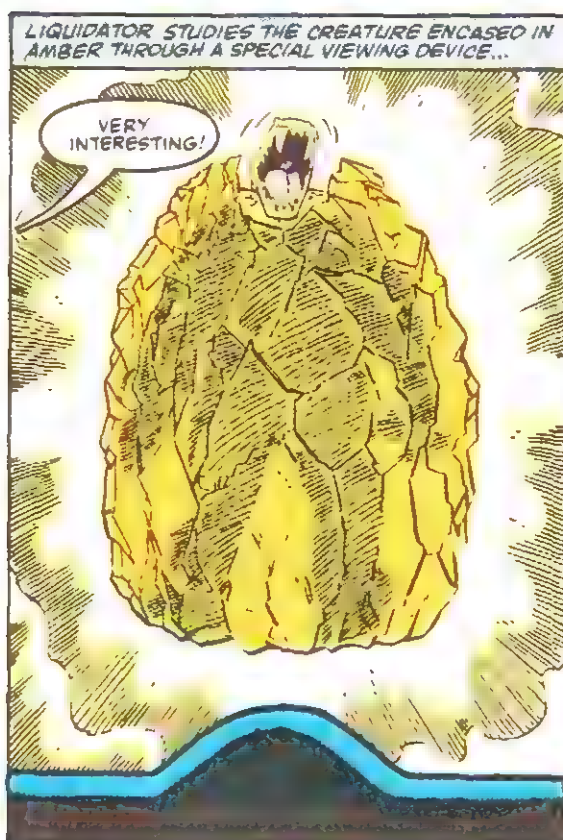

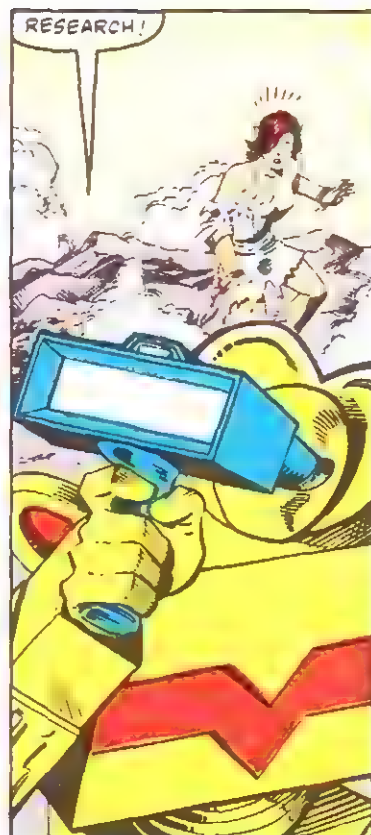

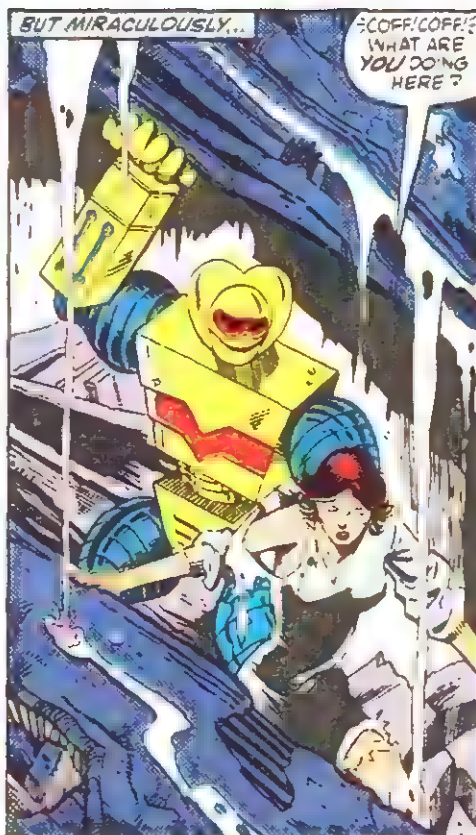

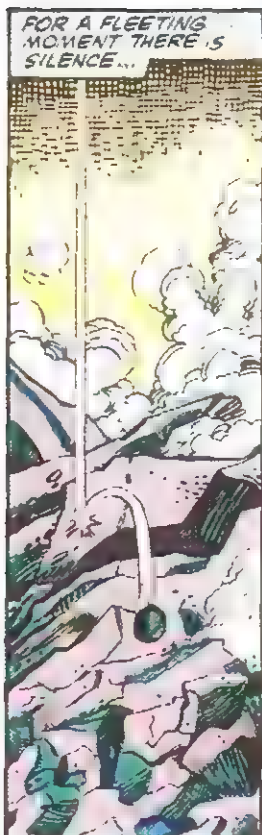

Thanks for being there,

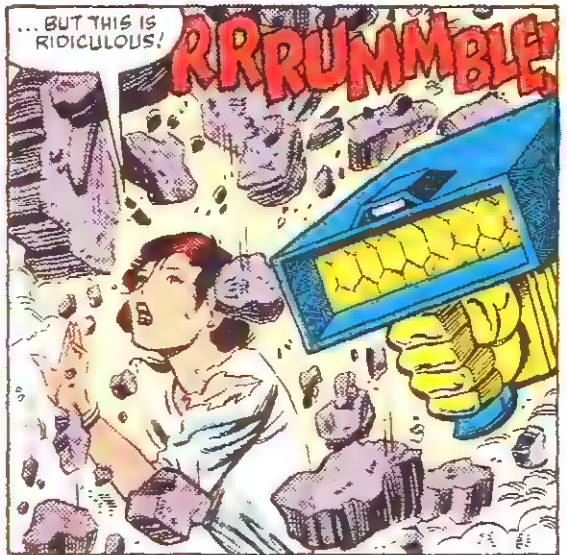

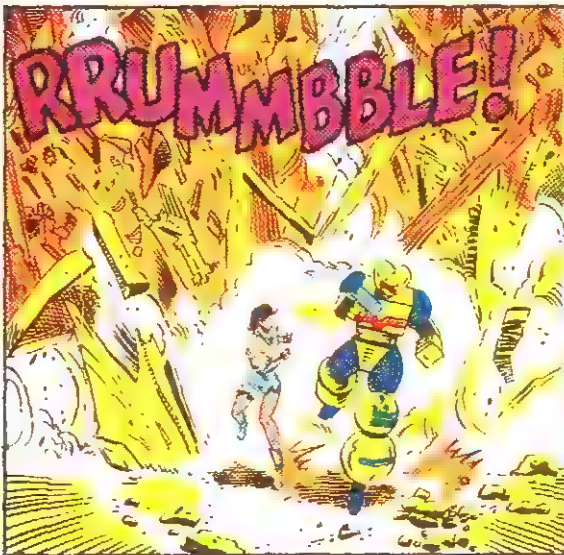

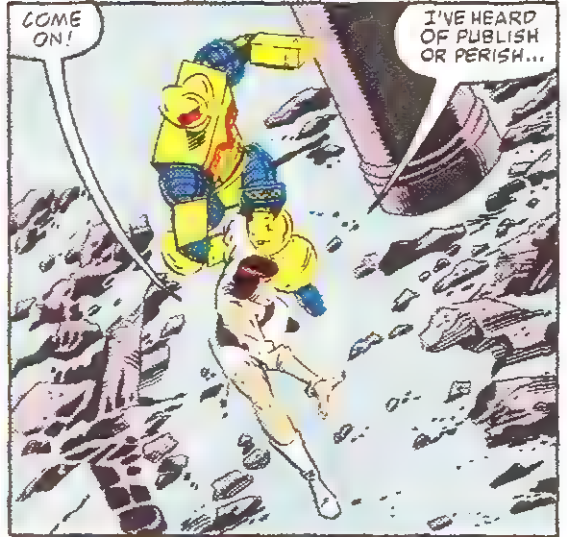

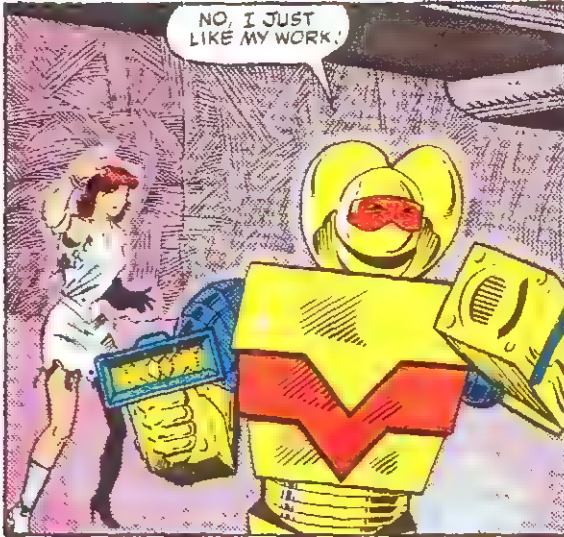

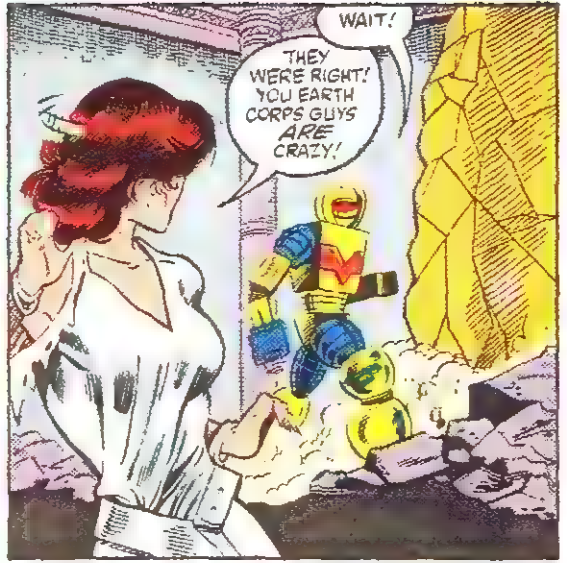

Tom D.
